that having no other engrossing interest than such literary work he is able to find sometime every day for such work outside his official routine. I however think that it is undesirable to permit Mr. Venkatesa and Mr. Srinivasachar who are associated with him as joint editors to become the editors of the Journals which must appear at fixed intervals and which must occupy much of their time. I do not see any objection to their being contributors of literary matter to the Journals started. This may lead to their being become editors or virtual editors behind the screen, but considering that their legitimate official work is more than enough to occupy all their time and tax all their energies, I am not sure that they should be permitted to associate

(23) I agree generally with the recommendations of the First Councillor and the Inspector General Education.

(24) There is no objection to the Magazine "Dharmavichara" being edited by Mr. Mahadeva Sastr for a period of one year; but every endeavour should be made to transfer the work to others as early as may be practicable.

(25) It is seen from Mr. M. Shama Rao's note dated 2nd July that Mr. Mahadeva Sastri has been "able to find some time every day for such (literary) work outside his official routine", and if admittedly Mr. Mahadeva Sastri is not fully engaged I think the Inspector General should be asked to suggest sufficient work for him. (26) I do not think it is advisable that Mr. Mahadeva Sastri should continue as Editor of a sectarian Magazine like "Supantha", though there is no objection to his being a contributor. This question may also be re-considered in the Education Department and definite proposals submitted for keeping Mr. Mahadeva Sastri fully employed. Letter No.63 dated 6th September 1915 from Mr. A. Mahadeva Sastri, B.A., Curator Govt Oriental Library, Mysore, to the Inspector General of Education in Mysore.

With reference to your docket No.4111/759 dated 3rd instant, I have the honour to state that I have not been able to find any private person qualified to edit the magazine on the lines laid down. The magazine has been serving as a convenient medium for the disseminating, in a popular form, of ideas arising from a deep study of the Sacred Texts we have been editing in the Oriental Library series, as may be seen from the issues of the magazines sent in a separate cover. To entrust the magazine to one who has not studied the sacred texts on the rational lines of the Vedic exegesis, will be to kill it. If, however, the Government should decide that I should give up editing it, I shall be prepared to abide by their decision.
